

General Needs

Smith's Court, Wimborne, Dorset

Key Features

- Off-road car parking (subject to availability)

The Scheme

Smith's Court, formerly The Smith's Arms Public House, was converted to flats in 2002 and provides accommodation for the general needs client group. Situated in central Wimborne, the scheme comprises six one bedroom flats. The scheme also benefits from a small enclosed communal garden area.

Services

Tenants at Smith's Court receive a full Housing Management service from tenancy sign up throughout the duration of their tenancy. This includes all tenancy information from rent payments to benefit advice and tenancy enforcement as well as a response repair maintenance service.
