Key Features

- Communal gardens
- Off-road parking
- Sheltered Housing Officer Service
- Emergency Careline unit in each flat
- Superb views across Dorset

The Scheme

Built in 1972 and extended in 2002, Dillon Court is a sheltered housing scheme for sheltered elderly tenants. The scheme comprises 8 x one bedroom flats, one of which is wheelchair accessible and adapted to full mobility disability standards.

Located in the peaceful village of Lytchett Matravers, these flats provide good sized accommodation with superb views over the village playing fields, Poole Harbour and Dorset.

Services

As a sheltered housing scheme tenants of Dillon Court will receive visits one day a week from a Sheltered Housing Officer, along with regular welfare calls each week.

All support is tailored to individual's needs and East Boro also operates a telephone Reassurance Service so that tenants can contact Support Staff.

In addition, all flats are fitted with a Careline unit, allowing tenants to access help in an emergency
